Visiting the Governor

Looking Backward

In the fall of 1958, 42 trembling freshmen entered Simms High School. Those new faces belonged to Janet Anderson, Gwenevere Bjork, Betty Breidenbach, Jim Caldwell, Hazel Charters, Terry Couch, Cathy Cutler, Barbara Dear, Marvin Hamann, Bob Henschel, Ben Hoge, Ralph Huseby, Patty Ireland, Sandra Kelso, Jim Klaue, Johnny Koger, Ramona Lesmeister, Jim Loomis, Don Mallo, Robin Moore, Marilyn Murdoch, Larry Nash, Sheila Nielsen, Corinne Ogden, Terry O'Neill, DaRe'll Rammell, Bonnie Remillard, Myra Robison, Sherrie Ross, Marianne Siemens, Betty Skelton, Richard Sorum, Carolyn Spangler, Phil Sprott, Susan Stordahl, Dolores Thomson, Bobby Thoroughman, Linda Tippetts, Ivan Turner, Bill Waples, Wally Wight, Naoma Wright. By giggling and laughing at the ridiculous pigtails and gunny sack clothes, the bashful barrier was broken. The next four years brought memories never to be forgotten. Johnny was elected president, Susan, vice-president, Carolyn, secretary, and Mr. Spangler, sponsor. Ramona left us soon. Study habits were poor, but they gradually and slowly developed to permit us to become sophomores.

Now was our chance to get even! John Greer, sponsor, had to keep a tight rein on the wild ideas for initiation. Janet, Ralph, Patty, Don, and Sherrie left us. We gained Bill Matson and his motorcycle, and the two Janets - Holzeworth and Campbell. History class proved to be a riot despite rumors that the little bald guy had an Irishman's temper. Jim L., Ben and Terry accepted class officers' duties. Rain tried to ruin our class picnic, but we just packed up the food and headed back to the high school where we boiled the wieners over a modern electric range. We had reached the half-way mark. Friendship bonds had grown closer and more secure, our carefree attitude had taken on a more serious nature, and we were looking forward, with anticipation, to the remaining years together.

Ben was junior class president, Bob S., vice-president, Marilyn, secretary, and Ivan, treasurer. The play, "Everybody's Crazy," was certainly a fitting title for this hectic year. Jim L. became famous as a lady, and remember the orange-colored drink? Our class was diminishing quite rapidly, we lost Terry C., Wally, both Janets, and Jim S. Kenni Ann Trow made true the rumors that a girl was coming to Simms to take ag. The prom theme "Sayonora" took us all on a visit to Japan. The banquet was quite an affair despite the fact that we were all tired and sunburnt. Class night was free, and the rubber dollar we received surely came in handy when we had to stretch class funds.

Seniors at last! Naoma, Bob T., Marianne, and Johnny led class activities. Mr. Askeland and Mr. Miller were our sponsors again this year. Ben, Linda, DaRe'll, and Bonnie left us, but Karen Eisenzimer and Eugene Graham joined us to make a total of 35. We had lots of fun producing "Deadly Ernest." The year went fast - too fast. Graduation activities arrived. The hopes and dreams of four years had come true. The friends we have made will be our dearest and closest ones. The memories we share with them are priceless. New horizons are to be conquered, and we all hope we can overcome the challenges to be met.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1961, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any wills heretofore made.

Marilynn wills her superiority complex to Marvin Gebhart. Jim C. wills his "pair of wheels" to his brother, Cliff, who will get them anyway. His ability to stick his foot in cement, Eugene leaves to Bill Aubert. Myra and Betty B. leave their study hall upstairs to John Ewing and Lila. Bob Stevenson leaves his knowledge of math to Russ Warnick (it will slow him down). Phil wills his way with women to Dick Hanson who needs it. Her perpetual tan, Betty S. leaves to Leona. Bill W. wills his love for English to Dell McCann. Barbara and Kenni Ann will the Ag Class back to the boys. To Sharlo Seaton, Carolyn wills her braces. Larry wills his height to Dennis Gray. Gwenevere Bjork wills her ability to get her glasses broken to anyone who has a "friend" in Great Falls. Terry and Naoma will the last-minute rush to next year's annual staff. Ivan Turner wills his ability to get along with people to Pete Kologi. Hazel wills her pen to Shorthand II. To Mick Webb, Paul would like to leave his taxi-cab. Sheila wills her DAR award for good citizenship to Burt Smith. Their ability to get along together, Cathy and Sandy will to Sharlo and Kay. Robin Moore wills her long hair to Mike O'Neill. Her outgoing nature, Marianne leaves to Janey Cheek. Rich wills his good grades and study habits to his brothers, Don and Gary. Jim Klaue wills to John Ewing his floor shift, standard transmission. Susan wills the regular Monday trip to Choteau to Carol Ann. Here's hoping she enjoys it. His ability to make people laugh, Bob Thoroughman leaves to Bob Kougle. To Larry Sand, Marvin wills the Dutton girls, and hopes Larry will have better luck. Corinne wills her love for Chemistry and Chem lab to David Harding. Jim L. leaves his mile records to Joe Kelleher and Bob Baker. Bob Henschel wills fifth period ag class to Steve and Howard. To Goldie Kirby and Bernice Holland, Dolores wills back the lunch room. John Koger leaves his crew cut to Sam Dean.

Looking Forward

The year is 1971. Perhaps you are wondering what the graduates of Simms High ten years ago are doing.

Bob Thoroughman is a millionaire and owner of a nightclub called the Hangover. His chief faro dealer is none other than Marilyn Murdoch. Sheila Nielsen is serving on a mission to Africa with her husband and four children. In Paris Carolyn is entertaining Marianne and Robin, who are renowned world travelers. Betty B. is traveling to the moon every week-end in her private space ship where Myra maintains a mansion to entertain Betty and all her green men. Bob S. is succeeding just as predicted in high school. He is president of General Motors. Paul is a minister. Jim Loomis is an officer in the Navy as is Jim Caldwell who spends his shore leave rubbing elbows with the movie stars in Hollywood. Ivan Turner is also living in California with his ideal mate. He makes his living pulling teeth. Gwenevere is living with her coach husband and raising little Millers. Naoma is working in music and has gained a middle name. Betty S., Kenni Ann, and Sandy, who is living on a ranch, are all married and have families. Jim Klaue is spending this third million and playing poker with the boys. Terry O'Neill is a grease monkey at Bennett Pontiac. Larry Nash is playing pro basketball with the Boston Celtics. Dolores is traveling around the world with a movie star. Hazel is an accountant in the Standard Oil Company. Susan, on a small ranch, and Corinne are putting their nursing degrees to good use. Marvin Hamann is the Commander of a battle ship. Eugene is working in Libby. Barbara is living on a ranch and raising quarter horses. Bob Henschel is teaching agriculture in California. Karen is an efficiency expert; she wrote a book on "How to Live in a Trailer House." After completing his college education as a metallurgical engineer, Johnny is touring Europe on a bicycle. DaRell is a salesman demonstrating new cars. Richard is married and living a quiet life in Great Falls. Phil is selling life insurance for New York Mutual and as a sideline is a handwriting expert. Cathy became internationally famous after she interviewed the Russian heads of state during one of her trips to Russia. Bill Waples is a professional stunt car driver at Indianapolis.

Myra,
I found this
in a very old
book (vintage 1890)
but the sentiment holds true today. Since writing in in albums our memory images
the greatest of pleasure
now in your Good Luck & best wishes
for the future -

Don't look on the future too
like a roll of

can't win it.
You can only
lose it.
